

I don't have a therapist but I recently acquired Naomi from Human Nurture. It's a salon equipped with expertise in areas like yoga, acupuncture and nutrition. Even before I speak, Naomi has surmised things like my personality type and eating habits just by looking at my face – she's like the skin whisperer. She also happens to have the world's most soothing voice, handy in a therapist if you ask me.

Right from the consultation I was sure Human Nurture could deliver the results I was after for my skin. It was their knowledge of how the skin works that made me feel secure and it was also reassuring that the therapist had beautiful healthy skin. As a result of my treatments and home care I now have a more even skin tone, less breakouts, minimised scarring and best of all glowing skin. I would recommend Human Nurture to anyone experiencing frustrating skin problems or anyone simply wanting to improve their complexion. People are always commenting on how good my skin looks and ask what I do... it's simple I go the experts in skin, Human Nurture!

I feel very blessed to have discovered Naomi and Human Nurture. Thank You Naomi for your time and patience in educating me about my skin and enabling me to make informed decisions about my skin care. I have narrowly avoided using harmful techniques on my skin such as laser and microdermabrasion. Naomi has taught me gentle nourishing techniques for preventing and reversing degradation of skin quality, aging and sun damage. Her input has helped me to love and care for my skin with confidence. I never believed in regular beauty appointments until I met Naomi and now I wouldn't see anyone outside of Human Nurture. I put absolute trust in Naomi and recommend her to everyone I know. Thanks again and I am looking forward to our next session together.

OMG just had the BEST treatment of acupuncture (first time!) and remedial massage on my shoulder by JOHN at HUMAN NURTURE in Vaucluse. John and Naomi really are the DREAMTEAM! It is SO refreshing and wholesomely good to recognise when people like these professionals, give everything they've got to you while they have you, are SO knowledgeable and passionate about what they do and passionate about what they know and want to share it with you ... I really GET this and appreciate it, as I find it so rare today ... healing hands both of them, and amazing ability to soothe, relax, and make you feel tip top and better than you though you could possibly feel! Cannot recommend them highly enough, thank you John and Naomi Nahoum — feeling blessed.
